

Census of Marine Life 2010: A Decade of Discovery

4-6 October 2010, London, UK
Schedule of Events

Monday, 4 October: News Conference and Reception

Venue: The Royal Institution of Great Britain, 21 Albemarle Street, London W1S 4BS

12:30-1:30 PM News Conference Check-in and Arrival period

1:30-4:30 PM News Conference on the Census of Marine Life 2010

The news conference will begin promptly at 1:30 PM. Attendees will not be provided access after 1:30 PM. The news conference will include four thematic sessions announcing the Census of Marine Life results, followed by a Q&A period.

4:30-7:00 PM Reception

Logistical information:

- No laptops will be allowed in the auditorium during the News Conference.
- The News Conference will be filmed for webcast and potentially other uses, so we ask everyone to please dress in professional attire.
- There will be giveaways at the events, including copies of at least two of the forthcoming Census of Marine Life books – Please plan to need some extra space in your suitcase going home!

Tuesday, 5 October: Science Symposium

8:30 AM-6:00 PM Symposium

Venue: The Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

The Science Symposium will provide an in-depth look at the Census findings and accomplishments.

Wednesday, 6 October: Science Symposium and Celebration

8:30 AM-4:30 PM Symposium

Venue: The Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

The Science Symposium will provide an in-depth look at the Census findings and accomplishments.

7:30 PM-12:00 AM Celebration

Venue: Natural History Museum, Cromwell Road, London SW7 5BD

Cocktail attire for the Celebration.